Concluding Impressions …

We acknowledge some of the classes covered "boring" information. However, we need your feedback on whether or not you thought the subject matter was useful/valuable/relevant.

CLASS (TOPICS)	NOT RELEVANT	SOMEWHAT RELEVANT	HIGHLY RELEVANT	LEFT BLANK
Accounting for Life (Financial Statements: Owe vs. Own, "Money In" vs. "Money Out")	1%	43%	54%	1%
Thinking Before Spending	3%	28%	69%	-
Budgeting for Smart Spending	2%	32%	66%	-
Planning for the Future (Long-term planning, savings & compound interest, bank accounts, CD's, "laddering", financial conflicts, $3 million KIPP question)	4%	28%	68%	-
Responsibility Can Cause Stress (Responsibility, mindsets, perspectives, constructive criticism, stress management)	7%	57%	37%	-
Values Impact Financial Decisions (Mid-Term Review: Red & Black … The Real Story)	5%	51%	44%	-
Plastic IS Real Money (Credit Cards)	3%	32%	65%	-
A Mind-field Called Insurance	5%	44%	48%	3%
Budgeting Your Time (Time Management, Piles of Paper, Identity Theft)	3%	41%	56%	-
ALL	4%	40%	56%	-

Can you think of any topics which should be added?

- For complete list of responses, see attachment
- Topics suggested:
  - Financial
    - How loans work
    - How to invest money
    - How to buy a house
    - Owning vs. renting vs. leasing
    - Bankruptcy
    - Taxes
  - Other
    - Relationships
    - Having a kid

On a scale of 1:10, with 10 being the best:

- What is your opinion of the program? 7.96
- What is your opinion of the book as a textbook? 8.26

KIPP: Houston High School

Red & Black Financial Literacy Program

	YES	NO	NOT SURE	LEFT BLANK
THE PROGRAM
Do you think ALL KIPP seniors should be required to take this class?	84%	4%	12%	-
Do you think ALL High School seniors should be required to take this class?	71%	11%	18%	-
Would you recommend this class to friends who don't go to KIPP?	79%	3%	18%	-
Do you think any of your parents might find some of this program useful?	84%	-	15%	1%
THE TEXTBOOK
If you only read the textbook, do you think it would have given you a better understanding of financial topics?	36%	25%	39%	-
If this class was taught by someone else and they just required you to do the reading assignments (maybe started each class with a short quiz), do you think it would still be a useful class?	20%	49%	30%	1%
HANDOUTS (For future classes, the handouts would be a workbook.)
We know you enjoyed the "answers." Did you find they helped you learn? Either by making you think about the right answer, or by realizing many people don't know this information?	82%	10%	8%	-
If the "answers" had come from the KIPP Class of 2009 would you still find them interesting?	60%	20%	20%	-
If the "answers" had come from another school (HISD or Kinkaid) would you still find them interesting?	54%	25%	21%	-
Did you find the handouts about that week's "topic" useful?	58%	21%	21%	-
OTHER
If KIPP sent you an alumni newsletter, would you read a Red & Black column?	84%	1%[1]	15%	-
ABOUT YOU
Do you feel more confident about financial matters?	87%	4%	9%	-
Do you feel that even if you don't understand something financial you have the ability to Q-I-D? (ask Questions - get Information - make smart, conscious Decisions?)	89%	-	11%	-
Do you understand how your values should affect you financial decisions?	88%	4%	8%	-
Do you think you're now better prepared for the "real world?"	79%	1%	20%	-