Mike Rogers Dominates the Debate Stage, Exposes Abdul El-Sayed's Conman Act

LANSING, MI -- Following the first U.S. Senate debate between Mike Rogers and Abdul El-Sayed, the Michigan Republican Party released the following statement from Senior Communications Advisor Greg Manz:

"Tonight in Grand Rapids, Abdul El-Sayed presented the same clumsy, contradictory conman act that defines his entire campaign. This debate showcased Conman Abdul's anti-American, extremist policies which Mike Rogers, a former FBI agent, decisively exposed."

"Conman Abdul cares more about Palestine than Michigan, which should concern every Michigander, given that the same radical Islamists who fund him also fund the Muslim Brotherhood."
