Michigan Republicans Lining Up to Support Draft Committee in MI-10

"Draft Captain Mike Bouchard" adds the support of 13 prominent Michigan Republicans and business leaders, including the Motor City Madman Ted Nugent, bringing its total up to 32.

BIRMINGHAM, MI – "Draft Captain Mike Bouchard" is announcing the addition of thirteen prominent Michigan Republicans and business leaders to its advisory board, including the Music City Madman himself, bringing its total up to thirty-two. This growing list of supporters makes it clear: Michigan Republicans want to see a proven fighter run for Michigan's 10th Congressional District, and that fighter is Captain Mike Bouchard.

Supporters know that Captain Bouchard is the right guy for the job, and they're fired up:

"While playing a sold-out concert in Macomb County, I heard the news that Army Captain Mike Bouchard may be running for Congress," said Motor City Madman and conservative activist Ted Nugent. "I couldn't be more excited! He's a true American warrior, currently serving overseas, and I know he'll be a relentless fighter for us in Washington," added Nugent.

"I am proud to support Captain Mike Bouchard for Congress," said former Congressman and Michigan Attorney General Bill Schuette. "I served in Congress. I know what it takes to succeed and to serve Michigan - and Mike Bouchard has exactly the right skills and talent to get the job done," added Schuette.

The draft committee is just getting started. In the coming weeks and months, we will continue to highlight the growing support for Captain Mike Bouchard to join this race and encourage him to run for Michigan's 10th Congressional District.

Captain Michael Bouchard serves as the full-time Operations Officer for a Michigan Army National Guard Battalion and is currently deployed on a joint task force in the Middle East. He has previously served as a Military Intelligence Officer in the 82nd Airborne Division and as an Infantry Officer in the 101st Airborne Division.
