

BODYGUARD

When survival meets spectacle in a collision of worlds.

Made with GAMMA

One Witness Is a Liability

The Wrong Place

Two witnesses? That's a nightmare.

In a world where every moment is content, staying alive means staying offline.

The Wrong Person

Especially when one won't stop live-streaming your escape.

Welcome to Glitter & Gore

The Unseen Underworld

Sterile. Calculated. Lethal. A criminal empire operating in the shadows with surgical precision.

The Over-Exposed Surface

Chaotic. Oversaturated. Always recording. Where every second is performed for an invisible audience.

Two worlds collide when a bodyguard's routine protection job becomes a viral death sentence.

ELIAS: The Shield

The Man

A professional bodyguard who's protected monsters for so long, he's forgotten what it's like to feel anything.

The Job

Elite protection specialist. Silent. Efficient. Numb. He's a weapon wrapped in a suit, emotionally flatlined.

The Arc

From Numb to Alive. Protecting someone "fame-obsessed" forces him to rediscover his humanity through absolute chaos.

MIMI: The Spotlight

Before

Life as a 15-second loop. Curated. Filtered. Perfectly fake.

The Shift

Witnessing a syndicate execution. The camera keeps rolling.

After

From Curated to Authentic. Being hunted is the first real thing that's happened to her in years.

When survival depends on invisibility, can someone built for visibility disappear?

Tone & Aesthetic

The DNA

The lethal precision of John Wick meets the chaotic banter of The Nice Guys.

Action that lands like a punch. Comedy that cuts like a knife.

Neon-Noir Palette

High-contrast shadows punctuated by artificial glow

Visual Language

Billboards, ring lights, and muzzle flashes as the only sources of light

The Syndicate

Corporate Killers

This isn't a street gang. These are executives in $5,000 suits running murder like a Fortune 500 company.

Digital Erasure

They don't just kill you—they erase your digital footprint first. No body. No proof. No trace.

The Problem

Mimi's livestream went viral before they could scrub it. Now 2.3 million people saw what they shouldn't have.

Chaotic Mishaps: The Set Pieces

Pink Limo Chase

Bulletproof glass meets bulletproof ego

ASMR Studio Shootout

Silencers have never been more literal

Red Carpet Escape

When every flash could be a muzzle flare

Why Now?

Performance Culture

We perform our lives for invisible audiences

The Social Commentary

This film explores the absurdity of our obsession with being "seen" in an era where privacy is the ultimate luxury. It's a timely, high-octane satire of influencer culture wrapped in a blood-soaked action thriller.

Performance vs. Reality. The line has never been blurrier—or deadlier.

Surveillance Reality

Everyone is watching. Everything is recorded.

The Paradox

Staying hidden is the only way to stay alive

BODYGUARD

The Partnership

He teaches her survival. She teaches him how to live.

The Mission

Stay alive. Stay offline. Stay human.

Survival is the ultimate brand deal.
